

Baby, Baby, Baby, Stick Your Head In Gravy!
By Robert Brizel

Baby wake up!

Baby, baby, baby, stick your head in gravy,
wash it out with bubble gum and send it to the navy.

Baby, baby, play in the sandbox,
empty your sand pail, and take off your socks.

Baby, baby, play in the park,
get kissed by doggie, see the moon in the dark.

Baby, baby, eat macaroni and cheese,
slurp your apple sauce, play with the keys.

Baby, baby, watch out or you'll fall,
jump on a trampoline, play with your ball.

Baby, baby, swimming is a joy,
splash in your baby pool, ride your ducky toy.

Baby, baby, smell the red rose,
jump on the bed, mess up all the clothes!

Baby, baby, fight with your brother,
mess up sister's room, hug your mother.

Baby, baby, see the clowns at the fair,
eat cotton candy, hug your teddy bear.

Baby, baby, kitty's on the loose,
play with the baby blocks, drink your orange juice.

Baby, baby, sit in your high chair,
shake your rattler, comb your hair.

Baby, baby, take your bath and smile,
wear your new baby clothes, look in style.

Baby, baby, see a book with sheep,
rest your head in the crib, baby go to sleep.

Baby good night.
